When the stadium lights go out, the real adventure begins. Ball Bear Friends is a CGI hybrid animation series following a colorful crew of sports balls — each shaped like a different sport, each with a wildly unique personality — who live secret double lives. By day, they show up at their respective stadiums and training grounds. By night, they return to "Balland," their cozy hometown, to hang out with family and friends.

But not every ball plays by the rules. Hit the baseball bear dreams of home runs but is terrified of the bat. Nova the soccer panda burns with passion but can barely keep up. Nucky the basketball tiger would rather rap than dribble. Together, this lovable, chaotic crew chases their dreams in a world where winning isn't everything — being yourself is.

With slapstick comedy told through body language, sports themes that transcend cultures, and episode lineups flexible enough to match any country's favorite sport, Ball Bear Friends is built for the global stage.

WeNobs Co., Ltd., located on Jeju Island, Korea's most beautiful island, is a company that plans and produces trendy IPs, animations, VR, AR, and immersive media content with creative ideas and a challenge-oriented mindset.

Our flagship project, Hotel Peni, is an emotional, healing, coming-of-age animation centered on microorganisms. Set in a microorganism hotel run by the 5,000-year-old Penicillin family, the story follows Pang, a rookie hotel president, who learns to offer comfort and a relaxing experience to burnt-out microbial guests. WeNobs maintains close partnerships with major broadcasters, licensing partners and local content agencies such as the Korean Broadcasting System (KBS), Korea Creative Content Agency (KOCCA), and Jeju Content Agency. Never staying complacent and continuously taking on challenges with our unique strategies, we strive to offer the value of digital content.

Our ultimate goal is to become a trustworthy global partner that delivers the value of the company to customers by creating animations which bring happiness to people around the world.
